"YELLOW PERIL"

ONLY A DREAM

REVEREND DENISON TALKS ON EASTERN PROBLEMS.

DRAWS HIS CONCLUSIONS

From His Actual Impressions Formed
During His Recent Visit to China and Japan.

Last evening at the Congregational church Rev. R. C. Denison delivered the first of a series of addresses concerning the relation of America to the Far East. The lectures are based upon the personal observations of Rev. Denison during his recent trip to the Orient, from which he has recently returned. The talk was appreciated by a large number of people who attended it and who will think of the problem as set forth by him.

In beginning his remarks, Rev. Denison said that he felt sure that the public would acquit him of the suspicion that might arise that these addresses were to be delivered because they would be interesting, and that he felt sure that they would realize the importance of the lessons that can be taken from the life in the East as he has seen it; that there were lessons that concern every man and woman who is interested in the welfare of this country as well as the Orient.

He said that when in Japan a gentleman there asked him if the opinions expressed by some of the newspapers, naming those that are of the variety known as the "yellow" press, expressed the real opinions of the Americans and he said that the Japanese was pleased when told that they did not.

He said that it made a great deal of difference whether a person thought as Lieutenant Hobson thought, who regards the yellow races as a great peril, or whether one considered them as the American missionaries in the East, who see that the Orientals are only in the first stages of civilization and must be treated with patience. Also that insults spoken to or against them did not make any better understanding between the two races; that he who could think broadly on these questions is more of a man than the one who is governed entirely by his prejudices against the races.

The "Yellow Peril," he said, is a phrase used by people in the Occident because they think that in time the people of the East will become stronger than the white races and arise and overpower them and dominate their civilization. The "Yellow Peril" to many means a war between the Caucasians and the Mongolian races.

This idea is strengthened because of the warlike disposition of the Japanese who are naturally a war-like people and who always have been. The army barracks of the Japanese are always teeming with soldiers, and the Japs are very careful to see that no foreigner enters their barracks because of their suspicion of the Occidentals.

They are also continually drilling their soldiers so that in case of sudden war with the other nations they will be prepared to meet them. This drilling that is carried on more rigorously than any other of the nations of the world, in fact the armies and soldiers of no other country could stand the training to which the Jap soldier is put through. Three times a day they are forced to go through the exercises, until the work of the Japanese soldier becomes automatic.

It is better than the work of the machine because the drill has behind it the brains, stamina and intense patriotism which is characteristic of the Japanese people as a whole.

The boys in the schools are even taught these drills and many of them were seen marching to school, with their drill guns on their shoulders.

Every move and policy of the Japanese government to enlarge the navy or increase the standing army is met with intense approval and they would gladly how themselves down to taxation which took from them almost the last penny, if the government were so disposed to do, although at present they are laboring under heavy taxes to pay the running expenses of the government.

This warlike attitude is partly caused by their suspicion of the trickery of the Western nations of whose quarrels and continual warlike acts they read. The pride caused by their success in the late war with Russia is another factor for the huge fighting forces always on hand. This is causing the Japanese people to puff up and make the nation warlike.

They have the idea that the greatest war in history has been fought and won by them and therefore because they defeated a nation like Russia, which was supposed to be a strong fighting country, they are able to defeat the other nations and not afraid of the armies of the United States because of their success in the Spanish-American War, which is, in their minds, only a little battle.

Mr. Denison stated in his talk that he did not think there was any great peril of war with Japan. The reason for this was; first, the distance between the two nations is too great for any large war to be waged successfully.

Secondly, the Japanese are suffering for a lack of money to carry on any such war as they are in debt, at present, as far as their credit with the lending nations will allow them to go.

As an example of this he stated that a railroad which it was proposed to build because there was not enough money in the Treasury of the Japanese government to pay the expense of having it.

Third, the leaders of the people are anxious for peace. They are frightened enough to see that the future of the nation cannot depend on fighting enterprises but must depend on the commercial and industrial greatness of the country.

Fourthly, their army is not large enough so that they could send a fleet to make an attack on the coasts of this country, for such an act would leave their own coasts exposed and undefended.

The Japanese people are too poor to enter into a war with the United States. The bank deposits in the whole country are less than the deposits in New York City. The taxes are enormous. Another is the sentiment of peace which prevails in the country. There is in the kingdom a large society which is promoting the interests of peace with the foreign nations. Also there is a growing spirit of Christianity which bridges the widest gulfs and binds the world together.

Rev. Denison considers Lieutenant Hobson entirely wrong in his opinion of the "Yellow Peril" and the danger of war with the country. China he stated is too weak to be a menace and it will be years before they will be strong enough. Also if we treat China fairly, China will be fair in her treatment of us.

The next question to consider, said
Rev. Denison, is: Will they outstrip us commercially? This question is also as great as the question of military strength. However, if the business methods of the Orientals were fair it is perfectly fair and right that they should have the bulk of commerce in their own section of the globe. If their methods are not honest, he thinks that the other nations of the world can bring enough pressure to bear upon them to become honest in their commercial dealings.

The United States will get its share of the Oriental trade by using honest methods. The Japanese are a dishonest commercial nation, but that is not sufficient cause for a war, as all international disputes can be settled by reason.

If there is no peril of war and no commercial danger, there is yet another peril. This is the real "Yellow Peril." It is that we should become so unbrotherly and unfair as to do acts that would prevent the cementing of the international ties.

This Chinese nation are slow and weak and the Japanese are bumptious, selfish and proud.

The Caucasians are the older in civ-lization and should therefore treat these countries which have just emerged from the darkness of barbarism with leniency.

They must be generous and patient with them. The whites took several thousand years to reach the stage of civilization which they now occupy and should be more considerate of the Mongolians who have had but few years to do so.

The real peril is not that of war but that the nations which have the culture and refinement will be narrow-minded as to bring on war by their prejudices. China asks of America patriotism and that she act as an older member of the human family to her.

The "Yellow Peril" is that we should go back to savagery and barbarism and become so intent on war that we would lose the intellectual and spiritual supremacy which we now hold.

—Badly Injured.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Broadhead, Oct. 5.—Some days ago Henry Stokes was passing through a place of timber south of Avon, when he was accidentally tripped and thrown violently to the ground by a wire hidden in the leaves and bushes, sustaining such injuries that he laid there from nine o'clock in the morning until five in the afternoon unable to help himself. He was found by C. Hawkins, who brought him to his home in this city. Mr. Stokes is a large man of seventy years and is feared he is badly hurt internally.
His family have all been sent for and four are entertained that his injuries may be serious.

before, it is merely a rope with a wooden handle attached to it, and it is the wooden handle that makes an effective rescue device from what was otherwise a hap-pazard affair. Probably the inventor saw several futile attempts at rescuing drowned persons by throwing them a rope. He may also have seen how wide of the mark a rope can be thrown unless cast by an experienced hand, and how necessary it is for the struggling person in the water to grasp the rope before it sinks. So he devised a board with a hook on it and fastening one end of a long rope to the end of the board, calls the rescuer over the head. To the free end of the rope he attaches a wooden handle, which will not sink in the water, but floats until it can be grasped.

AUTOMATIC FAN

Simple Touch of a Lever Causes It to Revolve.

Looking for the last summer season everybody resorts to the fan to afford temporary relief, yet few people realize that the exertion necessary to manipulate a fan, especially on a very warm day, will cause the perspiration to flow more freely than if the fanning was omitted. Accidentally, the electric fan is within the reach of but a few, but a contrivance, recently patented by a Detroit man, could prove equally as effective, and is yet portable, being small, it is very desirable in the accompanying illustration, fan, being made of metal and has similar revolving paddles. The latter are joined on a shaft which is mounted on a stationary handle. Connected with the shaft are gear wheels and a lever, the latter being in position to be pushed by the thumb when the handle is held in the hand. The occasional operation of the lever causes the paddles to revolve continuously in one direction. The more quickly the lever is operated the more rapidly the paddles revolve, the current of air being thus readily controlled. A person reading or otherwise occupied where the use of the hands is not essential, can easily keep himself cool with this fan with little effort on his part.

WEED KILLER

Implement Which Injects Poisonous
Liquid Into Roots of Plants.

How to get rid of dandelions and similar undesirable weeds is a problem hard to solve to the man who is anxious to have a well-kept lawn. Pulling them up does not destroy them. Sprinkling of weed killers around the plant invariably destroys the grass also. A Colorado man suggests getting at them with the burrowing implement shown here. The claim is it will do the trick thoroughly and with dispatch. A chemical compound deadly to weeds is placed in the bottle ing injector into the ground close to the roots of the plants. The point is pushed into the earth by means of the foot, and a lever released, injecting the liquid into the roots of the plant. The latter die in a few days, there being no necessity of pulling them out after receiving the treatment. With the aid of this weed killer all the weeds in a large lawn can be quickly attacked and put out of business.

Handle of Hammer Accommodates Tacks, Nails, Screws, etc.

Carpenters have a bad habit of losing their nail punches being small, it is very easy to mislay, and, naturally, can never be found when wanted. A Rochester inventor suggests a simple means of overcoming this defect of the nail punch to get lost. He has a device placed in the end of the handle into which the nail punch fits. The latter has a plate at the end which clamps over the top of the opening and prevents the nail punch falling out.

Hammers having similar recesses in the handle would also be of great value for household use. Nails, tacks, screws, etc., similar apparatus could be stored in the aperture, and, of course, would always be easy to find when wanted. Hammers similarly equipped would also prove a boon to mechanics in office buildings, where tacks and nails are as "scarce as hens'

Underground Rivers in Australia.

There are comparatively few rivers of any size or importance in Australia, and a local learned professor of science has been explaining the reason.
In consequence of the geological formation of the commonwealth most of its rivers are at present imprisoned subterranean streams.

He declares that one of these underground rivers is the largest in the world, being no less than 200 miles wide and running right through the center of the continent. If these vast supplies of subterranean waters were brought to the surface and properly utilized Australia would become the richest country in the world.

DREADED INSANITY DUE TO KIDNEY DISORDERS

Symptoms and Home Treatment

Gaut, the celebrated German specialist, asserts that seven-tenths of the feeble-minded and insane are the victims of kidney diseases.

Nervousness, excitability, restlessness, melancholia, pains in the back and head, neuralgia and rheumatic pains, fevers, chills, scanty urine, highly colored and acid urine, burning pains, fullness and soreness in the region of the bladder, all indicate that the kidneys are affected and weakened, needing tonic treatment.

The very best physician should be consulted at once, unless the patient fully recognizes the symptoms, in which case he should follow the simple, inexpensive, but reliable prescription he used for several weeks.

Ask any honest druggist to mix one-half ounce fluid extract Buchu with one ounce compound fluid extract Sarsaparilla. Then take a teaspoonful after each meal and one at retiring, drinking plenty of good pure water between meals. This mixture makes a splendid tonic and blood purifier.

BRYAN WILL GIVE IOWA MORE TIME

CHANGES PLANS OF HIS TRIP TO CHICAGO BANQUET.

SPEECHES BY ROOSEVELT?

Story That President Will Certainly Take the Stump—Taft Makes Address in Kansas City Church.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 5.—In order to devote still further attention to the state of Iowa, William J. Bryan Sunday night announced a change in his plans in connection with his trip to Chicago where on the night of October 7 he is to meet Mr. Taft at a banquet. Instead of leaving here Tuesday afternoon and going direct to Chicago, as had been arranged, Mr. Bryan will start Monday night for Des Moines, from which point he will on Tuesday proceed to Perry, Tama and Cedar Rapids and deliver set speeches, while from the rear platform of the train en route he will make several short talks. The journey to Chicago will be made Tuesday night. Although it has not been definitely settled, it now is planned that Mr. Bryan will speak in St. Louis Friday evening and then re-enter Kansas on Saturday for a full day in that state, returning to Lincoln Sunday. It also is likely that before making his final trip into the middle west and the east he will spend a day or two in campaigning in his home state.

President to Take Stump?

That President Roosevelt fully intends to take the stump in favor of the candidacy of Mr. Taft was the information received at Fairview Sunday from the east. It was said that the advice came from persons upon whom reliance could be placed, and were to the effect that Mr. Roosevelt is planning to make at least six speeches in the course of a trip from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the concluding speech to be delivered at San Francisco, with numerous short speeches en route. Mr. Bryan, however, absolutely refused to make any comment upon the subject.

Taft to Close at Youngstown.
Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 5.—It has been definitely decided that Judge Taft shall close his campaign on the night of November 2 at Youngstown, O. The national campaign of the party was opened at that place with Gov. Hughes as the principal speaker, and it has been deemed fitting that the national candidate should make his closing address there.

After the Youngstown meeting Mr. Taft will leave at once for Cincinnati to cast his vote the following day.

Mr. Taft had a hard time to carry out what he desired and had planned, a program of rest, Sunday. He reached the city at seven o'clock in the morning from Topeka and was met by a local committee consisting of Senator William Warner, Representative E. C. Ellis and State Chairman Walter S. Dickey. They escorted him to the Baltimore hotel.

Mr. Taft had some time ago consented to talk of the work of the Y. M. C. A. to an audience of men at the Independence Avenue Methodist Episcopal church. The audience completely filled the church and the crowd outside which demanded admission was twice the number inside. Windows in the edifice were broken, no great was the eagerness of the crowd to get a glimpse of the candidate, and it was only after it had been announced that Mr. Taft would address the overflow meeting that the inside meeting was allowed to proceed.

President's Letter to Haskell.

Washington, Oct. 5.—At the suggestion of J. H. Norris, chairman of the Republican state committee of Oklahoma, President Roosevelt Sunday night made public a letter he had sent to Gov. Haskell relative to shipments of whiskey into prohibition territory. Gov. Haskell, in a recent statement mentioned the fact that he had such a letter from the president, and intimated that the writer might not like to have it given publicly. This aroused interest in prohibition quarters and there were many inquiries from that quarter as to the contents of the letter. President Roosevelt wrote to Gov. Haskell as follows:

"The White House, Washington, Apr. 13, 1908.—My Dear Governor: I have received your letter and shall give it careful consideration. The matters of course, concern congress primarily, and legislation is now under consideration to decrease the amount of assistance which violators of local prohibition statutes can obtain from the rules necessarily protecting interstate commerce and the use of the mails. Sincerely yours, Theodore Roosevelt."

LEAGUE BASEBALL RESULTS.

With the close of play for the season only two days away in the American league and three in the National, the outcome of the race in each league still hangs in the balance. Never have the finishes in the two big baseball organizations been so close and exciting and never has the interest throughout the country been kept at such intense pitch to so late a date.

The contest narrowed down several weeks ago to three clubs in the National league and four in the American. St. Louis was eliminated from the American league fight not long ago, but Detroit last year's champion, Cleveland and Chicago were left to fight it out. These clubs remain contestants for the flag in the games to be played Monday and Tuesday, with Detroit still holding the advantage as a result of its six-point lead over Cleveland and nine over Chicago. It may take the last day's games to decide which shall be the ultimate winner and the contender against either the Chicago or the New York National league team for world's championship laurels.

The National league battle is all but decided. Sunday's game in Chicago put Pittsburgh out of the final reckoning and left Chicago assured of more than an even chance with New York for the landing of the flag, it being impossible for New York to do more than tie the Chicago team. It would do that by winning all three games it is scheduled to play with Boston on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Monday's meetings of the National league directors, which will pass upon the protested Chicago-New York game of September 23, may have an important bearing on the National league result and the decision therefore is awaited with feverish anticipation by baseball enthusiasts.

The standing of the clubs follows:

CASTRO RETURNS TO CARACAS.

President of Venezuela Recovering from a Severe Illness.

Caracas, via Willemstad, Oct. 5.—President Castro has returned to Caracas, cutting short his stay at Willemstad on account of ill health. For a time the president was a very sick man and consultations of physicians were held daily. His condition is improving now, but as yet he has not been able to give his attention to Holland's second note, which Baron Seckendorff, the German minister, presented to him on Friday last.

The belief is held here that President Castro will not yield to the Dutch demands and that rather than do this he will fight.

Sir Vincent Corbett, the British minister, has returned here after an absence of a month in Trinidad.

Willemstad, Oct. 5.—Admiral recovered here by steamer state that at a meeting on October 1 the Venezuelan senate and President Castro refused to consider Holland's second note with regard to the controversy that has arisen between the two countries.

MORMONS FOR PROHIBITION.

Entire Membership of Church Pledged to "Dry" Legislation.

Salt Lake City, Oct. 5.—Having heard their president expound the revelation of the words of wisdom which prohibits the use of all intoxicants by the faithful, 15,000 members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints Sunday proclaimed their faith in the practical application of the ecclesiastical law by voting unanimously approval of a resolution pledging the entire membership of the church to support prohibition legislation.

The occasion was the opening of the seventy-ninth semi-annual conference of the church and in the great tabernacle and at two overflow meetings a vote was taken on the resolution. It was introduced by Apostle Heber J. Grant.

Winnipeg Cathedral Dedicated.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 5.—The new St. Boniface cathedral, erected at a cost of $600,000, was dedicated Sunday afternoon in the presence of a great array of prelates and clergy. It is erected on the site of the burned cathedral made famous by Whitlitt in his poem, "Bells of St. Boniface." One of the large contributors to the building fund was J. J. Hill of St. Paul.

Bishop of Connecticut Stricken.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 5.—Right Rev. Michael Tierney, Catholic bishop of the diocese of Connecticut, was stricken with apoplexy Saturday night and is in a critical condition. His physicians fear that he will not recover.

JAPAN READY TO ENTERTAIN FLEET

DETERMINED TO ECLIPSE ALL PREVIOUS RECEPTIONS.

SEVEN DAYS OF PLEASURE

New Methods of Extending Hospitality Devised by the Government—Admiral Sperry to Occupy Palace.

Tokyo, Oct. 5.—Japan is planning to give the American battleship fleet a welcome that shall eclipse in splendor and enthusiasm any of the previous receptions tendered the American vessels on their voyage around the world. The arrival of the fleet at Manila has given a stimulus to the interest in their forthcoming visit to Japan, and the preparations for the constant entertainment of the American officers and men are now completed. The vessels are due here October 17 and will remain a week.

When the 16 warships, under the command of Admiral Sperry, steam into Yokohama harbor, the salutes of their guns will be answered in kind from 16 battleships of the Japanese navy. These vessels already are at anchor off Yokohama.

The Japanese government will outdo all its previous efforts at foreign entertainment and the occasion is regarded in Tokyo as inaugurating a new page in the history of the relations between the two countries. The international and political significance of the visit has not been lost sight of here by any means and the fact that it was at one time reported that the American vessels could not visit Japan's waters with safety has only stirred the government to greater effort to disprove these malicious rumors.

The Japanese authorities have taken delight in thinking up new ways and means in extending hospitality to their guests and making their stay here thoroughly enjoyable, and various exceptional attentions have been planned which will add in making the sojourn of the Americans in Japan something always to be remembered. The entertainments and receptions will begin at Yokohama and continue there for two days before the scene of hospitality is removed to Tokyo.

Sperry to Live in a Palace.
At the special wish of the emperor, Admiral Sperry is to be entertained and will reside for four days at one of the imperial palaces at the capital. The program provides for the constant entertainment of officers and men and everything will be free.

In addition to the official program there is to be a vast amount of private entertainment by societies and individuals. The only American function of the week will be a garden party at the American embassy.

Admiral Sperry and the officers of the fleet of high rank will be received in audience October 20 by the emperor of Japan.

Fatal Rioting in New York.

New York, Oct. 5.—Scenes of disorder occurred in many parts of the city Sunday as a result of the strike of the chauffeurs of the New York Taxicab Company, which was declared Saturday. One strike-breaker was probably mortally injured, a number of others were painfully beaten and several of the red taxicabs operated by the company were damaged.

Fatal Fire in Missouri Town.

Hartsville, Mo., Oct. 5.—Lemux Pittman, an attorney, formerly on the editorial staff of the Encyclopedia of American and English law, was burned to death Sunday in a fire which destroyed a number of business buildings here.

Hangs Himself in Jail.

Brunswick, Me., Oct. 5.—Sylvester J. Campbell, who was threatened with prosecution for subornation of perjury, hanged himself in jail here Sunday.

Saved from Dismal Fate.

HURRICANE HITS MANILA

DAY IS SWEEP FOR HOURS BY TREMENDOUS STORM.

Battleships Uninjured by the Fierce Gale and Heavy Sea—Damage Done Ashore.

Manila, Oct. 5.—The Atlantic battleship fleet has safely outridden a hurricane which swept Manila bay for 12 hours and did much damage ashore. Typhoon signals were displayed early Sunday morning, but the storm broke over the bay suddenly and unexpectedly at noon. It was impossible to hoist the cutters and launches belonging to the fleet because of the danger of smashing them against the steel sides of the battleships, and the little craft were sent scurrying inside the breakwater into the Pasig river, where they remained all night.

The storm quickly increased in intensity and the torrential rains shut in the ships.

At eight o'clock Sunday night the storm had reached its height and it then gradually tapered down until at midnight it was comparatively calm, although heavy seas swung across the harbor.

During the storm all the battleships had steam up ready for any emergency. Rear Admiral Sperry finally ordered the flagship Connecticut and the Kansas, Minnesota, Vermont, Virginia and Ohio under way. They were close to Cavite, where they anchored.

At times the wind blew at the rate of 100 miles an hour. All communication with shore was cut off. It was impossible during the height of the storm to see the warships through the haze of rain and spray.

CAR UPSETS; MAN IS KILLED.

Dick Brink of Grand Rapids Meets Death in Auto Accident.

Holland, Mich., Oct. 5.—While on an automobile trip from Grand Rapids to Holland Sunday night Dick Brink, Grand Rapids, a prominent merchant, was accidentally killed. While driving down a hill near Vriesland, the steering gear broke and the automobile turned bottom side up in a ditch. The other members of the party, Mrs. Brink, Mr. and Mrs. Ingh and Mrs. Tenbroeck, all of Grand Rapids, escaped with slight injuries.

Mahonoy City, Pa., Oct. 5.—In an automobile plunge over a 25-foot embankment at Gordon Sunday, Mrs. Peter Young, 34 years old, and her daughter, Helen, aged eight years, were killed, and her husband, Peter Young, Sr., and Peter Young, Jr., six years old, and Charles Clark, a nephew of the dead woman, all of Ashland, sustained fractured skulls and internal injuries. Little hope is entertained for the recovery of the injured.

BLOODY WORK BY A MOB.

Negro and Two Children Killed and Others Fatally Shot.

Hickman, Ky., Oct. 5.—Dave Walker, a negro, his five-year-old daughter and his baby child were killed outright, the mother was fatally shot, and three other children will probably die as a result of a mob's visit to the Walker home, near here. The oldest son is missing and is supposed to have been burned with the negro's cabin, which was fired by the mob. Walker had cured a white woman and threatened a white man with a pistol.

Shocking Tragedy in Tennessee.

Bristol, Tenn., Oct. 5.—William Hales, 35 years old, in a fit of jealousy Sunday stole into the home of his brother-in-law, Burney Hales at Johnson City, Tenn., and with an ax beheaded Hales, killing him instantly. He then turned upon his own wife, who was a guest in the Hales home, and cut her head open with the ax. Being arrested, he hanged himself in his cell.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM OVER BONUS VOTE

C. F. Brockhaus Holds The High Vote Of The Contest Today. Who Will Hold It Tomorrow? Miss Edna P. Murdock Is Leading The Ladies In The City While Miss Selma Hammel Of Afton, A New Entry, Is Occupying First Place In District No. 2.

EACH CANDIDATE sending or bringing to the Gazette office five NEW yearly subscribers by Oct. 19th, at 9 P. M., will be given a ballot for 10,000 extra votes—five NEW six months' subscriptions will entitle you to 5,000 extra votes. One yearly will count as two six months' subscriptions. Five new yearly or five new six months' subscriptions will constitute a CLUB. Don't be satisfied with a few Clubs, get as many as you can.

Are you afraid to enter this contest because you think you might not win? If that is the case by all means send in your name at once to the contest man and make a start for you have a much better show to win than the ones who think they cannot be beaten. You ask why? Here is the reason. Clubs are usually taken into camp by the smaller fellow, because when the overmatched man does go into battle he has previously made up his mind that the least he can expect is a thorough defeat and he enters the fray determined to acquit himself with honor at least and slugs away with that blind determination that is born of terror and he comes through with colors flying because the bigger chap was too self-assured to frighten himself into the belief that there was any danger and lacked the equal zeal for resistance. Don't be afraid of entering the contest because someone looks big to you. You hold an advantage over them. Victory belongs to the ones who make themselves victorious and not to those who merely feel themselves entitled to it.

Victory in this great contest will go to the ones who strike out in every direction after subscriptions and strike as fast and often as they can. The best way to land a telling blow on your opponent is to land first, and when they go for a subscription they had counted on as sure, they find you have come and gone with the coveted votes and scored another point on your way to victory. Don't lose a minute.

proportioned to aid in building public highways.

"That roads are really 'public' as they are named, and not the concern solely of the men who live on them is rapidly becoming accepted as a fact in progressive communities. When they are accepted as public property it is only right that they be paid for by the whole public.

"It is unjust to require the farmers alone to pay for the roads, for good roads bring benefits not only to the farmers but to every citizen who gets what he eats from a farm, or who buys from or sells to farmers. This amendment simply provides for a plan whereby state money can be used to pay for a part of the cost of roads when the local people have voted to pay their share. There is nothing compulsory about it—it is simply a step toward a more just and equitable distribution of the cost of one of our great institutions—our roads. It takes part of the load from the farmer who has heretofore unjustly borne it all, and puts it on the state as a whole, where it belongs. Every good citizen should be sure to mark his ballot in favor of this amendment and influence his neighbors to do the same."

Senator Stout is a man of wealth and a philanthropist as well. He built at his own expense a model road, leading out of his home city, and his training school has attracted wide attention. He is also a heavy taxpayer, and a level-headed businessman. His endorsement of the good roads movement should carry weight, and the amendment to which he refers, should be supported by every intelligent voter.

The over-zealous zeal of both political parties has resulted in a scarcity of campaign funds such as never before realized. The average voter is not a philanthropist when the hat is passed for campaign contributions, and turns away with disgust, and the feeling that an effort is made to corrupt him.

The corporations, both large and small, are barred from contributing, and the officers are usually men of moderate salaries who do not feel warranted in giving freely, and in many cases are not able to make liberal contributions if so disposed.

While it is true that corporate money was used too freely for campaign purposes, it is also true that no way has yet been discovered to raise the funds necessary to conduct a campaign. The Inter Ocean in commenting thus sizes up the situation:

"Both the republican and democratic national committees are practically without funds today. Except the candidates and a few public officials neither has any speakers in the field. No literature worth mentioning has been sent to the voters.

"As the managers on both sides said this was the kind of campaign they wanted they ought to be pleased. Yet it is no secret that they are not pleased.

"The situation appeals to the American sense of humor, but it has certain serious aspects. For instance, hundreds of thousands of voters are now drifting about uninformed and ignorant on the issues of the election. There has been this year no real campaign of political education such as was carried on in former years. The newspapers on both sides are doing what they can, but they cannot do what of what ought to be done and what has been done in the past.

"The addition to what the newspapers do every day, year in and year out, the additional stimulus to public thought supplied in the past by speakers and literature devoted to answer the questions of the day, is missing this year. The political education of the people is neglected.

"The result will be that hundreds of thousands of voters will go to the polls next month not informed of the situation as it is and hundreds of thousands more will not be sufficiently aroused to go to the polls at all.

"It is a pitiable spectacle. The ignorance of citizens is the safety of a despotism, but it is the danger of a republic. Yet this ignorance is the direct result of the poverty into which both committees have been persistently steering.

"There's something wrong with such conditions and it is to be feared that the vote on Nov. 3 will show it."

THE NEW YORK GOVERNOR

Governor Hughes of New York is doing effective work in the campaign. When he says that "this is a critical time in the life of the nation," he utters a truth which every thinking man not blinded by prejudice endorses, for the success of Bryanism, with all its vagaries, would be a national calamity.

The issue of the present campaign is not a Taft and Bryan issue. They are simply incidental. The issue is more significant than the success of any candidate, for parties are larger than men, and principles are at stake which are vital to national welfare.

The democratic party has been tried and found wanting. Bryanism is not democracy, but it is so much more vague and visionary that the nation can not afford to experiment with it. Bryan is the only man who could hold this new aggregation in line, while scores of men could be found to lead the republican party in a campaign.

Governor Hughes recognizes this fact and this is his estimate of the one man who overshadowed his party and who has demoralized democracy beyond recognition:

"The principal service Bryan has rendered his country is in being defeated."

"Bryan would not be a candidate today had he carried out the propositions he recommended."

"We must judge his present capacity by his past effort."

bank failures in the state of New York from Jan. 1, 1905, until the present time was less than $15,000."

"The workmenmen least of all can afford to have a change in the impartial administration of the law."

The primary election cost the candidates more money than could be required to run half a dozen conventions and resulted in many cases in nominating men by minority vote. It is a white elephant which nobody wants, candidates are disgusted, the people are so indifferent that a large majority of them would spend time to vote, and the statesmen, who had so much to say about the "corrupt machine," are up in the air, looking for a place to light. The primary law is a high priced snare and delusion, and should be relegated to the scrap heap, with a bunch of other reform measures equally impractical.

The expense account of ex-Congressman S. A. Cook, in his primary race for nomination, is accompanied by a wall of discontent over the extravagant waste of money, but was the money wasted? It was simply put in circulation to meet the demands of a law created for that particular purpose, and endorsed by candidates who vied with each other in extolling state reform legislation. The man who dares has no right to complain when called on to pay for the waste.

Congressman Longworth, the President's son-in-law, is conducting a double-headed campaign. His range of vision reaches out to 1916, when after eight years of Taft, in the White House, he pictures a second Roosevelt administration. That's going some for even an ambitious son-in-law.

The easiest way to end an argument is to call a man a liar, at safe range. The national campaign, now in progress, is noted for this class of argument. If the contending parties ever get together, there ought to be a few fist fights, to say the least.

Governor Haskell is busily engaged in passing the contribution box for the benefit of the state, and incidentally replenish his own exchequer. The people have taken the matter under advisement, and may decide to worry along without him.

Business is good at the government printing office and a new scale of advanced wages has recently been adopted. It is gratifying to know that one line of business is not suffering from the panic.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

Copyright, 1908, by Edwin A. Nye.

AS TO LIVING 150 YEARS.

How long do you hope to live?

The answer largely will depend upon your age.

Just now much is being said about the art of long living.

Says a recent writer, "There is no good reason why a man should not live to be 150 years old."

Be patient!

There are some reasons to the contrary, even should a man be able to keep body and soul together that long.

The reasons are inside the man—in the web and web of his spirit.

The man who reaches, say, ninety years may have the desire to live longer. He may not be appalled at the future stretching out before him for another sixty years, but he is simply UNABLE IN SPIRIT to accomplish it.

He is built that way. In spite of his primal love of living, he simply gets tired of mortal life. He has "suffered the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune" until in the very knot and center of his being he is weary—wary as a tired child at bedtime.

Why?

The aged man is necessarily a lonely man. He has far outlived his generation. He is out of touch with the world. His dear ones have gone before—the playmates of his youth, the companions of his early manhood, the companions of middle age, all gone. And in the very nature of things he cannot make new friends like the old ones. Youth must consort with youth, age with age. And, lacking the stimulus of normal and natural associations, HIS SPIRIT DROOPS. It must be so.

And again:

The aged man has lost the fine flush to enthusiasm and the fine edge to endeavor that go with his early years. HIS SPIRIT IS DULLED.

The aged man is disillusioned. Once he built beautiful castles in Spain. He has seen them toppled to earth. Once the intrigues of life enticed him, but he has seen them rise and dissipate themselves.

That, lonely, disillusioned—that is why even die when they die of old age.

It is well for one to live as long as he can—usefully and happily. But better, infinitely better, than a mere stretch of years is the life that worthily spends its threescore and ten and when the shadows lengthen lies down to pleasant dreams.

On Good Breeding.

The immortal man, who invades another's property, is justly branded for it; and the ill-bred man, who, by his ill manners, invades and disturbs the quiet and comforts of private life, is by common consent as justly branded from society. Mutual complaisances, attentions and sacrifices of the conveniences, are natural in implied compact between civilized people as protection and obedience are between kings and subjects; whoever, in either case, violates that compact justly forfeits all advantages arising from it.—Lord Chesterfield.

Not How Cheap, But How Good MAPLE FLOORING

We have just received a carload of the famous INE. Meyers patent, clear polished rock maple flooring. When you consider laying a maple flooring, ask your carpenter about this brand. From point of quality in lumber, the polish of the face, the matching, it cannot be excelled. We are compelled to pay a few dollars more per thousand feet for this excellent grade, but are asking only as much as you will pay for inferior grades elsewhere. We always have this in stock.

3x11 1/2 in. face for extra fine work$45 per M.
3x12 1/2 in. face, strictly clear.....$50 per M.
3x12 1/2 in. face, same as above, but in a second quality$45 per M.

FLUFF RUGS

A beautiful soft rug made of your old carpets at a saving of 25 per cent.

Your old carpets are first put through a cleaning process, then cut in strips of uniform width. The strips are frayed evenly by perfected machinery. It is then rolled by machine and is ready for the loom. Our looms are constructed so as to set the material on edge and in weaving the warp is invisible, which gives the rugs an even, harmonizing effect.

The cost is 75c a square yard. If you care to call we will show you many made-up designs and give full explanation. Phone or write for a representative.

We have a new method by which we can make fluff rugs from but half of the material used in the above kind, at a cost of 70c per sq. yard for weaving. This makes a rug similar to the fluff rugs except that the knupp is not so long.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, Oct. 5, 1868.—A Company of Colored Tanners.—The colored men of this city have held a meeting to take into consideration the matter of forming a company of tanners. Quite a good number put their names on the roll, and the enterprise looks most flattering. They held another meeting in the jury room this evening, and will then be able to decide whether or not to go on with the organization. We hope they will be enabled to fill up the company and elect their officers at once.

A Formal Christening.—Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2 had a formal christening of the new and beautiful fire steamer, on Saturday evening which was attended by the entire department. After partaking of the refreshments Mr. John H. Hodson, foreman, was presented with a most elegant gold badge, as an insignia of his office. This beautiful piece of work was done by Mr. Hodson at Woburn, and shows well what our home institutions can do. The pin bears the following inscription on its face:—"To John H. Hodson, foreman of Water Witch Engine Co., No. 2, Janesville, Wis., Sept. 1868." Speeches were then made by all who felt disposed to do so, and after giving three times three for the new engine with the old name, the ceremonies at the engine house were concluded.

An Assault.—A few nights ago, the caboose of the railroad watchman at the south end of the long railroad bridge at Monterey, was greeted with a stone which smashed the window. He at once went to see who was making such an assault, and discovered four men running away. Pursuit was at once made and he came up with two of the parties who were accused of the offense. They denied it and words led to an assault by one of them, who was a young man named Lawrence Tracy. Complaint was made against him and he was brought into the police court on Saturday and fined $15 and costs. As the four men had bags with them, well-filled, it is presumed that they had been on a fruit-pilfering expedition.

The State Fair.—The receipts of the State Fair this year amount to about ten thousand dollars, which is considerably less than was taken when the fair was held in this city.

Republican Meeting at the Court Room.—There will be a Republican Meeting at the Court Room in this city on Tuesday next. Hon. O. H. Waldo of Milwaukee will address the meeting on the political issues of the day. The Tanners will also be out for the occasion.

There will be two full moons this month. Look out for any number of marriages and other manifestations of insanity.

Her Handicap.
Henrietta and Louise, little maidens of ten years, had for some time been rivals for the honors in Room 4. Louise's mother and father had both been teachers—a great advantage in Henrietta's eyes. One day, upon being censured by her father for bringing home a report below Louise's, she replied: "Yes, papa, but you must remember Louise comes from a smart family."—Delineator.

May Return Immigrants.
Under the law no one of the mill lion and a quarter immigrants who enter the port of New York each year, is fully admitted to this country, for is fully admitted to this country, for government has the right to return him to the port from which he came at any time within three years after his arrival.

Giant Turtles.
Capturing giant turtles seems to be a profitable business along the Maine coast. A 1,500-pound one was recently taken in those waters, and so great a curiosity was it that the two captors promptly exchanged it for a perfectly good check for $250. The purchasers, present-day P. T. Barnums, hope to reap a small fortune by exhibiting the turtle at various county fairs.

Decorations for Women.
There are few decorations for women in Europe, the most ancient order coming from the Austrian throne. It is the decoration of the Star and Cross, and is given to women of high rank. Another is the Lansen, founded in memory of the beautiful queen of Prussia, whom Napoleon humiliated. This order is given to all classes of women who commit any great self-sacrifice.

Potatoes a Staple Dish.
Potatoes furnish about one-eighth of the total food of the average American. In other words, he lives on potatoes for nearly one day out of every week. Compared with the 12 1/2 per cent of his diet that is potato, all the other vegetables show up only as a trifle over seven per cent.

Diet Equalization.
Much is said about the Irish peasant and his potato diet, and how well he can live and work on this fare, but in almost every case he keeps a cow along with his potato patch, and the abundance of milk in his diet furnishes him with a fair amount of protein.

The Best in Dress Goods at the Big Store

Our stock of new fall suitings, skirtings, etc., is very complete at the present time. The days of big selling are here and we would advise not waiting too long if you are interested in something for a new fall or winter suit.

Our fall showing of Woolen Dress Fabrics is already commanding great interests from the fact that not only all that is new and attractive in plain cloths for gowns or tailoring but as well all the fancy weaves in wool suitings are to be seen. The weaves include invisible shadow and herring bone stripes, diagonals, wide wale suitings, chevrons, serges, taffetas, Panamas and beautiful broadcloths.

To emphasize the strength of the values embraced in our dress goods section, we quote a few prices of especially desirable fabrics.

Imported chambray finished suiting, correct weight for suits or skirts. The new stripe pattern, emphasizing the Van Dyke stripe, a very stylish as well as practical fabric. Comes in navy, olive, plum, brown and penceok, 44 inches wide..... $2.00 Yd.

Diagonal striped serge, a very popular cloth, this season's new stripe effect, best colors, as taupe, olive, navy, new browns, plum, and black, widths 46 and 50 inches..... $1.00 and $1.50

A fine assortment of $1.25 suitings, best blues, browns, greens, reds, coming in different stripes and checks.

A splendid all wool herring bone stripe serge, all colors, good weight, 48 inches wide..... $1.00 Yd.

Victor broadcloth $2.00 yard. Positively the best cloth weight imported broadcloth on the market for the above price. Its fine texture, beautiful finish, draping qualities, make it especially desirable this season. All shades, 52 in. wide.

Moravia broadcloth, $2.50 yard, new shades, including pastels. Other qualities at $3.00 and $3.50 yard.

An immense collection of plain cloths, taffetas, mohairs, batistes, voiles, Panamas, serges, 50c and upwards.

The New Tailored Waists

We are enjoying an exceptionally good business in the waist department. Several numbers have been so depleted that we have had to send for liberal reorders. Two or three tailored waists seem to be a necessity to complete the wardrobe of the average woman.

There is smartness to our waists that at once appeals to women of good taste.

TRICK WITH A SHIRTWAIST.

It solves the problem of how to put on a shirt waist which buttons in the back and do it without the assistance of a maid. Put the waist on with the opening in front, without putting the arms into the armholes. Then close the neck and pin it evenly. Next button down about three buttons, then turn the waist round to its proper place. Lifting the waist up about the neck, slip the arms through into the sleeves.

We have the plain, tailored Chambrays at $1.50.

Waists of fine white cheviot with black stripes in assorted widths at $2.

One of beautiful fine white cheviot at $2.50.

Popular waists of plain white muslin, front and cuffs trimmed with tan bands, very desirable, $2.85.

Fine white muslin with narrow plaited fronts at $4.00.

At $1.00

We show especially strong values in percales, good grade, attached cuffs, detached linen collars, Mendel make, plain white and white with black stripes and checks.

Of Standard Waists

We have them in beautiful fine white all pure linen, no collars, attached cuffs, novelty plaited fronts, excellent grade of pearl buttons. "Standard" stands for good quality and workmanship.

Large New Line of Lace Net Waists at All Prices

Fancy silk waists, exclusive styles, confined to us in Janesville. If made at home many of these would cost practically twice as much. The creations are certainly beautiful, of the celebrated Robertson make, nothing slighted in the making. Price range up to $16.00. A very large assortment at the present time, no two alike.

At $6.00

A tailored silk waist of Poie de Cygne, long sleeves, fancy cuffs, large and small tucks, back and front, colors blue, brown or wine. These are beautiful silk waists to wear with suits.

Black Silk Waists

with long sleeves and short sleeves, $4.35 to $9.00, mostly of the Robertson make, made of reliable qualities of silk. No trouble to get suited from this line.

A few of the tailored waists can be seen in our North Window.

THE HEN WHICH HAS ENTERED THE MISSOURI STATE HOUSE.

Peggy is in a class by herself. She is the only hen who was ever known to enter a state house for an honorable position among its governors. But be it known that Peggy is no ordinary hen. She is the Mrs. Vanderbilt of the chickens of the United States.

Born and raised in Kansas City, Peggy is now valued at $5,000 and five of her children were recently sold to Madame Paderawski for $7,500. She belongs to the Crystal White Orplington class and is 97 3-10 perfect.

Because of the unquestionable supremacy which Peggy enjoys in the hen world, a magnificent portrait of her has been painted by a celebrated western artist, and, as shown above, Peggy is to hang in the Missouri state house at Jefferson City, among pictures of other individuals who have helped to make Missouri famous.

Is It Necessary to Pay 35c or 40c for Good Coffee? Positively No!

Are you using some well known brand of coffee at 35c or 40c a pound—used it for years? Have you been disappointed in trials of lower priced coffees and have come to the conclusion that in order to get the coffee you wish it is necessary to pay this high price? I'll wager you have not tried Golden Blend, because if you had you no doubt would be using Golden Blend today. I say this because I can furnish the names of many users of Golden Blend who have paid 35c and 40c at other stores for so-called higher grade coffee. Golden Blend has suited so many, and is suiting so many people today that if it does not suit you, you are an exception to the rule. Yet this does not mean that it is necessary for you to pay 35c or 40c for your coffee. Golden Blend is a standard of coffee. It is used by one-fourth of all the people in Janesville and suits them. It may be a little too mild or a little too strong for your particular tastes. If this is the case with you, I'll guarantee to please your taste in coffee, and save you 10c or 15c on each pound that you use. I'll do it in this way: You buy a pound of Golden Blend upon my recommendation, try it and if it does not suit, you tell me in what way it doesn't. Then I'll commence to blend specially for you, using Golden Blend as a basis from which to work. I'll blend in half pound lots, and make you a present of the coffee until you have been suited.
